

Rescue Me

Woke up this morning and my mind was all over the place.

Frustrated and disturbed, I needed a place to vindicate.

I went to the closet, and Lord it was just me and You.

A prayer and a praise that was well over due.

So here I am down on my knees, waiting patiently, Father, so could we talk please?

Lord, I come to You to ask You to help me.

Redeem my mind, for the devil is working on me and being unkind.

I cling to You, O Lord, and I ask You to cleanse my soul.

Please help me; don't let Satan take control.

For my mind is becoming dark, and my heart is heating up, and my soul is wandering off.

Please don't let Satan take control.

Rescue me through the faith and love I have for You.

Rescue me; free my mind and soul.

Rescue me, and make me a part of Your fold.

Rescue me; make me understand what a difference there is Between God's and Satan's plans.

Whisper To Me, O Lord

Whisper to me, O Lord. Tell me what to do.

For I wait for You, O Lord, to help me see things through.

For my heart is open, and I give my soul and all my love to You.

With confidence, I hold my head up high.

Jealousies, I no longer have.

So, Lord, could You put me on the right path and make me behave?

Patiently, I wait for You, for these trials and tribulations, I must go through.

Whisper to me, for I know it's all a test.

Whisper to me to show me what is best.

Whisper to me to keep me in Your fold.

Whisper to me, and don't let the devil take control.

Whisper to me; don't be a stranger in my life.

Whisper to me; tell me how to arm myself to fight.

Whisper to me to show me the difference between right and wrong.

So, as I give ear to You, O Lord, to what You have to say,

Could You scatter Your words through my heart,

And help me translate them through my thoughts.

So patiently I wait for Your whisper to touch my soul.

O, help me, Lord, to take control.

Tomorrow, Tomorrow

Tomorrow, tomorrow; we all benefit off of tomorrow.

The wisdom that the scripture brings, the Tree of Life that acknowledges everything;
Everything that has living breath, everything that God has made with dust from the ground,
Everything that has living sound;
Will all have to answer tomorrow.

Tomorrow, tomorrow; to be by God's side is not hard at all.

So just fall to Your knees and make that call.

Please, God, come into my heart, and free my mind and clear my thoughts.

Forgive me for my sins, O Lord. Don't leave my side.

Give me faith and strength, things I can use as a guide.

Tomorrow, tomorrow; before it's all said and done;

Let every man, woman, and child have to answer to God and His Son.

So repent now, and ask God to forgive you for your sins

Because tomorrow is when life really begins; we all have to be judged for our sins.

Tomorrow, tomorrow.

Foolish

I was foolish because I could not see.

I was foolish because I did not let the Spirit touch me.

I was foolish because of what I chased, and I did not have enough faith.

I was foolish because I did not recognize His grace.

But now, I am overjoyed with His unconditional love

Because I opened my heart to what is above.

True love for the Lord, now that I understand,

To accept God's gift and belief along with His plan.

Having confidence and assurance, faith in Thee.

That's something you can't take from me.

My love for the Lord, I do not doubt at all.

But being foolish makes us backslide and fall.

So, take ear to what I have to say.

Just trust in the Lord each and every day.

Don't be foolish.

I Found You

I found You when I thought life was all over.

I found You when I needed a new start.

I found You when I opened up my heart.

You showed me favor, O Lord, and opened up some doors.

That's when I found out I needed much more.

I found You because You led me Your way.

I found You because I studied and learned how to obey.

I found You, Lord, when my back was against the wall.

I was drawn to You when I heard Your call,

And that's when my back came off the wall.

I thank You, Lord, for laying Your Spirit down on me.

You opened some doors so I could see.

That's why I am so glad I found You.

Knock, Knock

Knock, knock. Who's there? Satan. Satan, who?

The one who came over to seek you.

Then, Satan said, it's alright. Jesus has gone away for the night.

So, can you come out and play? I've brought a few demons along.

A demon of lust, a demon of alcohol and drugs, a demon of let's go out to the club.

Before I could answer him, I heard a louder knock and a voice call.

Anybody home? Anybody hear my call?

Knock, knock? Who's there? Jesus. Jesus, who?

The One you almost left behind to let the devil trick you, just to be unkind.

Then Jesus said to me, O, you with little faith, haven't I taught you to appreciate

The grace that I gave to you as a gift?

The love that I showed you when I died for your sins?

The promise of eternal life if you were to follow Me?

I know what you need, and I'm always on time.

Just listen to me, and leave the devil behind.
